A man wearing a black baseball cap and a black hoodie is focused on adjusting the handlebars of a light blue bicycle. He is in a workshop setting with various tools and equipment visible in the background. The bicycle has a light blue frame with a stylized 'f' logo on the head tube and 'FAIRLIGHT' written on the down tube. The front wheel has a tan-colored rim tape. The text 'BUILD PROCESS' is overlaid in large, bold, white capital letters across the center of the image.
